NCSU Libraries' Andrew K. Pace Receives Technology Award

Andrew K. Pace, head of the NCSU Libraries' Systems Department, recently was named Librarian of the Year at the Fifteenth Annual DRA Users' Conference, a national library technology conference. Sirsi, owner of DRA and a vendor of integrated library systems and other library technologies, honored Pace in St. Louis, Missouri, on March 3, 2002, with its high achievement award. Pace earned the title "2002 Librarian of the Year" and received both a plaque and a prize consisting of a notebook computer. He was recognized by Sirsi and other librarian and DRA colleagues as an individual who has made significant contributions in the area of library automation using DRA Taos, DRA Classic, INLEX/3000, or MultiLIS systems. Pace said that he particularly enjoyed
